

John C. McNett

SENIOR COUNSEL

John joined the firm in 1970 and has over the years tended to concentrate in litigation of intellectual property issues, while also handling patent licensing and prosecution matters. Prior to working with the firm, he had worked in his hometown of Fort Wayne, Indiana, as a television engineer, as a microbiologist, and as a construction worker. He has served as an adjunct professor teaching intellectual property at Purdue University. He has served as a mediator and as an arbitrator in intellectual property disputes.

John tends to focus his practice on issues that are difficult or complex either technically, legally, or diplomatically. He is comfortable working in all areas of technology. John has been selected for inclusion in Super Lawyer listings in Indiana each year from 2004 to 2009.
