

Professionals

Daniel J. Lueders Partner

Dan is a former professor of law at Indiana University School of Law, having taught patent and trade secret law, trademark law, and patent litigation. He has served as an expert witness in intellectual property lawsuits. Dan is a graduate of the Stanley K. Lacey Executive Leadership Series, and was also a former volunteer deputy prosecutor. He is also a registered mediator. Dan joined the Firm in 1986. Dan is currently Managing Partner of the firm. View more online »